

QUESTION 10

Background

- 1. Under the partnership agreement, the partnership is engaged in the business of selling books to its members.
- 2. Under the partnership agreement, the partnership provides selling services to the partners and the partners are entitled to the partnership's net income, including the share of the partnership's net income.
- 3. Under the partnership agreement, the partnership is engaged in the business of selling books to its members and the partnership is engaged in the business of selling books to its members.
- 4. The partnership has been engaged in the business of selling books to its members and the partnership has been engaged in the business of selling books to its members.
- 5. In the partnership agreement, the partnership is engaged in the business of selling books to its members and the partnership is engaged in the business of selling books to its members.

Question

- 1. There is a provision in the partnership agreement that the partnership is engaged in the business of selling books to its members and the partnership is engaged in the business of selling books to its members.
 - 1. The partnership is engaged in the business of selling books to its members.
 - 2. The partnership is engaged in the business of selling books to its members.
 - 3. The partnership is engaged in the business of selling books to its members.
 - 4. The partnership is engaged in the business of selling books to its members.
 - 5. The partnership is engaged in the business of selling books to its members.