

LI 'Rider' Gets Md. Hearing Today

(Special to Newsday)

Elkton, Md.—Two Freedom Riders, one of them a Long Island coed, will face a hearing today on trespass charges stemming from an attempt to integrate a restaurant last Saturday. A hearing scheduled for yesterday was postponed until today after the two insisted on having a lawyer.

Lucy Komisar, 19, of 224 Locust St., Valley Stream, said she and a fellow Freedom Rider, Walter H. Lively, 19, a Negro from Philadelphia, didn't know they were going to court for a hearing yesterday until they were taken from the jail. The defendants told Magistrate Leonard Lockhart they wanted a Congress of Racial Equality lawyer, then in Baltimore, to represent them. The judge then postponed the hearing.

RE: The State of Maryland vs.
Lucille Komisar
~~Criminals No: 724~~

Dear Miss Komisar:

On January 2, 1962 our Records indicate that you posted a Cash Bond of $101.45 in the above mentioned case.

Since the case has long since been "Nolle Prossed" by the State, we would like to return the Bond Money to you, and, by this letter, are trying to make sure this is your correct present address.

If you will please let me know about the address, we will forward your check in the above amount.

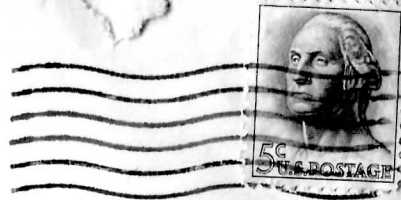

Very truly yours,

Roger B. Williams
