

EDUCATION MANAGEMENT AND LEADERSHIP
(Advanced Level General Certificate)

Leading the school team involves the effective management of a school which is under the leadership of the school head. The school head is the central figure in the management of the school and is responsible for the overall development of the school. The school head is the central figure in the management of the school and is responsible for the overall development of the school. The school head is the central figure in the management of the school and is responsible for the overall development of the school.

- Understand the role of the school head in the management of the school. This involves understanding the role of the school head in the management of the school and is responsible for the overall development of the school. The school head is the central figure in the management of the school and is responsible for the overall development of the school.
- Understand the role of the school head in the management of the school. This involves understanding the role of the school head in the management of the school and is responsible for the overall development of the school. The school head is the central figure in the management of the school and is responsible for the overall development of the school.
- Understand the role of the school head in the management of the school. This involves understanding the role of the school head in the management of the school and is responsible for the overall development of the school. The school head is the central figure in the management of the school and is responsible for the overall development of the school.
- Understand the role of the school head in the management of the school. This involves understanding the role of the school head in the management of the school and is responsible for the overall development of the school. The school head is the central figure in the management of the school and is responsible for the overall development of the school.
- Understand the role of the school head in the management of the school. This involves understanding the role of the school head in the management of the school and is responsible for the overall development of the school. The school head is the central figure in the management of the school and is responsible for the overall development of the school.
- Understand the role of the school head in the management of the school. This involves understanding the role of the school head in the management of the school and is responsible for the overall development of the school. The school head is the central figure in the management of the school and is responsible for the overall development of the school.