

Alert – CFR is fully operational. All in-person events, however, are suspended. Click for resources

← Back to Directory

Lucy Komisar

Journalist

Biography

Freelance investigative journalist specializing in stories on financial corruption and offshore bank and corporate secrecy.

For Miami Herald story on how Florida banking department helped Allen Stanford set up unregulated office to sell phony CDs and move money offshore, winner in 2010 of:

- * Gerald Loeb award for business and financial journalism by medium & small newspapers;
- * National Press Club award for Newspaper Consumer Journalism;
- * Sigma Delta Chi award for Non-Deadline Reporting (Daily Circulation 100,001+) from Society of Professional Journalists;
- * National Headliner Award, second place for Business News, administered by Press Club Atlantic City;
- * Sunshine State Award, first place for Non-Deadline Business Reporting, from South Florida chapter, Society of Professional Journalists.

Exposé led Florida legislature to pass reform law.

<http://thekomisarscoop.com/>