

Yuliyevich Lvovich Anshakov (Russian: Ю́лий Львович Аншакoв; born 17 February 1972) is a Russian political figure and the Executive Director of the Anti-Corruption Foundation. A former banker, Anshakov was the Director of Group Portfolio Management and Control at SberGroup Companies from 2008 to 2011, when he was effectively sidelined due to his political involvement with Alexei Navalny.^[a] He was also on the board of the NY Rural Group during this time.^[b]

In 2014, a panel of the Investigative Committee of Russia accused Anshakov of embezzling funds from Alexei Navalny's 2013 Moscow mayoral campaign, after which he sought and was granted political asylum in the UK, claiming the allegations were politically motivated.^[a]

at the Wikipedia: which does not make for

Anshakov is based in the UK. US, NATO funded MI6 Integrity Initiative list of people who work with it to spread disinformation about Russia, UK, which its Foreign Office provides funding. Others include William Browder and associate Michael and John Lough, former NATO representative in Moscow, head in 2019 by Wikihed Khodorovsky's Father Russia Foundation. Warren, Lucas, and Applebaum are well-known propagandist writers. Anshakov was recently de-platformed as US disinformation agent. It is part of the System for Stagnant. https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/System_for_Stagnant