Affidavit in Response by Irina Tsareva

I, Irina Tsareva pro se, of the Western District of New Providence Island, one of the Islands of the Commonwealth of The Bahamas, a specially appearing Third Respondent erroneously named as Irina Starostenko, an erroneously named party to the Attorney-General's originating application, filed 11 June 2024 ("Originating Application"), which is based on an affidavit used in evidence¹ sworn by Lena Bonaby, filed 11 June 2024 ("Lena Bonaby Affidavit").

I am guided and inspired by the statements of Osadebay J. in his Judgment given in the Walsh v. Ansbacher (Bahamas) Ltd. - [1997] BHS J. No. 18, paragraph 20 of which reads:

*"20 The Bahamas and its Banking Industry are to be sustained, it is of the utmost importance that The Bahamas and its Banking Industry should not be seen as a haven and refuge for fraudsters and their ill-gotten gains. I must therefore consider these proceedings in the light of its own facts before me."*²

¹ CPR Rule 8.25, CPR Rule 30.1 and CPR Rule 30.3 apply.

² See Bahamas Law Reports/1997/Walsh v. Ansbacher (Bahamas) Ltd. - [1997] BHS J. No. 18 in Paragraph 20 reads: "Having regard to the dependence of the economy of The Bahamas on the Banking Industry, I am at home with and find the expressions of their Lordships and those of Scott, J. most relevant and appropriate to The Bahamas. Service of process

For the reason stated above, and therefore for inadequate service of process on 18 July 2024, I abstain from completing the form of acknowledgment of service so served on me, together with the Originating Application and the Lena Bonaby Affidavit, but I state that:

- (i) I contest the claim;
- (ii) I seek other remedies beyond that set out in the Originating Application;
- (iii) I intend to rely on the evidence in this Affidavit in response under Rule 56.2(2) of the Civil Procedure Rules, 2022 ("CPR"); and
- (iv) I object to the use of the CPR Part 8 procedure as provided for in CPR Rule 8.27(1) for the reason that there is a substantial dispute of fact³ as to the circumstances asserted in the Lena Bonaby Affidavit.⁴

I further swear this Affidavit in support of applications for the Court's directions requiring:

- (i) pursuant to CPR Rules 8.25(3) and 30.1(3), the attendance for cross-examination of the deponent Lena Bonaby; and
- (ii) pursuant to CPR Rule 30.3(3), that the scandalous, irrelevant or otherwise oppressive matters identified in this Affidavit be struck out of the Lena Bonaby Affidavit.

Overview

1. The relationships between the Starostenkos and UBS AG, UBS Bahamas Ltd (in voluntary liquidation) (UBS), and Credit Suisse, Nassau (formerly known as Credit Suisse, Nassau and now part of UBS AG since 2023) (UBS-CS) is a two-folded and have given rise to the two primary legal actions. The Starostenkos aim to recover their capital and receive proper compensation for the suffered prejudice.

A brief summary

2. Action 1 - UBS-CS stole $571,959.00 from the Starostenkos' account in 2009. Both, UBS and UBS-CS, are represented by the same law firm.
 - 2.1. in 2009 UBS-CS withdrew $571,959.00 in fees from our account for two months of activity;
 - 2.2. the amount with interests accrued to the date of the claim, 21 August 2018, totaling $1,143,349.00 and the daily rate of $187.95⁵;

the prosperity of The Bahamas and its Banking Industry are to be sustained, it is of the utmost importance that The Bahamas and its Banking Industry should not be seen as a haven and refuge for fraudsters and their ill-gotten gains. I must therefore consider these proceedings in the light of its own facts before me.

³ CPR Rule 8.15(1) and CPR Rule 8.19(1) apply.

⁵ The interest accrues on both the principal and on interest after the date of the claim, and fixed costs pursuant to CPR Part 72.4(1).

- 2.3. we have relied on the promises of the CS managers that the refund for this huge mistake is on the way, and our money should be seen as a secure and profitable long-term investment, patiently waiting. In September 2015, our account was suddenly closed in order to save further expenses of account management, as we were explained;
 - 2.4. no refund was issued;
 - 2.5. in August 2018, we filed action 2018/CLE/gen/No.00953, Starostenko et al. v CS AG, Nassau Branch. The only defense advanced by Lennox Patton is that we are out of time, although the property was held in trust, as required by law for broker accounts. The case is in the Supreme Court awaiting a date for a leave to appeal application against the decision of now-retired Justice Ruth Bow-Darville, who dismissed the claim as time-barred.
3. Action 2 - Action 2 - UBS sold an illegal financial product to us - RECL (Real Estate Collateralized Loan) for five years in September 2012, taking their house as collateral. When Starostenko complained on multiple occasions about unacceptable service, UBS forced its hand and instead of finding a solution and issuing refunds for its wrongdoings (lack of electronic platform, late and wrong execution of trade orders), UBS moved with all its power and:
- 3.1. refused to refund or agree to any reasonable solution, believing to be above the law’;
 - 3.2. obtained a summary judgment by fraud, namely lying, through Mr. Marco Trunquest, five times to the Supreme Court Judge;
 - 3.3. even when the Honourable Judge corrected himself, placing a strict consolidation Order on 4 November 2015, that both actions were to proceed as one (UBS’ claim and counterclaim), UBS continued to obstruct the court's process. A copy of the Order dated 4 November 2015 is now produced and shown to me, marked as ‘Exhibit 12’.
 - 3.4. All court's rulings and transcripts indicate that we were never accused of being vexatious or lacking merit in our counterclaim or in any way have delayed the process. On the contrary, UBS was found to have created prejudice against us by stealing a trial date of 19 September 2019 (see the Supreme Court ruling of 8 May 2023 delivered by Sir Ian Widner, Chief Justice, and it continues to be "victorious" in avoiding the trial date. A copy of the Ruling dated 8 May 2023 is now produced and shown to me, marked as ‘Exhibit 7’.
 - 3.5. UBS, facing an imminent trial date on Part 2 and with a Court of Appeal application likely to succeed in Part 1, sought to mislead the Attorney General's Office by advancing self-evidently frivolous claims. Their aim was to obtain an order that would further delay the process and incur additional costs, even though we are confident such an order would not be granted.
 - 3.6. With the above statement, I humbly ask all attorneys at the Attorney General's Office who will read this, also available on our website, to do your best in order to stop this abusive and unacceptable application and to indicate to UBS and its lawyers that the trial and appeal is the only legal option available to resolve these cases.

The facts relied upon are, as follows.

4. Cross-examination of Lena Bonaby is necessary for the following reasons.
5. Lena Bonaby has already twice committed perjury or facilitated the conveying of false information to the Supreme Court during the proceedings here in question through her affidavits filed in the Supreme Court, resulting in no imposition of any punishment provided by the Statute Laws of The Bahamas, therefore an evidentiary hearing to test Lena Bonaby’s veracity is warranted, as well as other remedies sought against Lena Bonaby:
 - 5.1. On 9 November 2018, the Respondents applied to the Supreme Court for leave to make an application for an order of committal against Lena Bonaby. A copy of the Summons supported by the Statement under RSC Order 52, filed 9 November 2018, is now produced and shown to me, marked as ‘Exhibit 1’.
 - 5.2. On 13 and 22 November 2019, Yuri Starostenko applied to the Minister of National Security alleging “offences committed by a structured group . . . comprised of Lena Bonaby . . .”, among others. Copies of the Open Letter dated 13 November 2019 and 22 November 2019, are now produced and shown to me, marked as ‘Exhibit 2’.
 - 5.3. On 20 September 2023, the Respondents applied to the Supreme Court for cross-examination of Lena Bonaby and striking out the Appraisal made by George Damianos. A copy of the Motion, filed 20 September 2023, is now produced and shown to me, marked as ‘Exhibit 3’.
6. For two centuries past, the policy of the Anglo-American System of Evidence has been to regard the necessity of testing by cross-examination as a vital feature of the law.⁶

On 18 July 2012, Yuri Starostenko and Irina Tsareva signed on behalf of Junkanoo Estates Ltd. the Account Application for Entities, which formed a financial services contract between UBS (Bahamas) Ltd., undersigned on 10 August 2012, and Junkanoo Estates Ltd., whereby Junkanoo Estates Ltd. was enabled by UBS (Bahamas) Ltd. to take positions in the Derivative products and the U.S. Securities using the loan proceeds, followed by the opening of the Junkanoo Estates Ltd.'s corporate account with UBS (Bahamas) Ltd. numbered 32377 ("account 32377").

On 23 August 2012, UBS (Bahamas) Ltd. made a written offer Junkanoo Estates Ltd. through a Commitment to Finance Letter dated the same day ("Commitment to Finance"), which formed a financial services contract between UBS (Bahamas) Ltd. and Junkanoo Estates Ltd., whereby UBS (Bahamas) Ltd. agreed to provide Junkanoo Estates Ltd. with:

- A. a credit facility ("Credit Facility") in the amount of USD$1,400,000.00 ("Facility Amount") at the interest rate of 4.02 per cent per annum;

On 18 September 2012, as security for repayment of the indebtedness arising under and pursuant to the Credit Facility, Junkanoo Estates Ltd. granted UBS (Bahamas) Ltd. a mortgage ("Mortgage") over a residential real estate property located in the prestigious community of Lyford Cay known as Jazz House ("Residential Premises").¹⁰

“3. The defendants say that they have a defence. “4. . . . It appears not to have been appreciated that the defence which the defendants wished to raise was not just that the debt was abated by the cross-claim, which might in some circumstances have amounted to an equitable set-off, but that the event of default which was said to have made the debt payable was brought about by UBS’s breaches of duty. This may or may not have been a good point, but Counsel’s concession meant that that was never decided. . . .” (Some cites omitted, underline and ellipsis added)

- B. in August 2013, Junkanoo Estates Ltd. had made net profit of US$30,694.00, and UBS (Bahamas) Ltd. had made two (2) compensation payments to Junkanoo Estates Ltd. in the total amount of US$3,110.00¹² for lost profits, resulting from the UBS (Bahamas) Ltd.'s failures to render financial services to Junkanoo Estates Ltd.;

- a. on 19 September 2013, UBS (Bahamas) Ltd. without any reasonable ground and in breach of its own Terms and Conditions sent to Junkanoo Estates Ltd. a "margin call" and a "halt of trading", whilst the sum of US$589,362.00 was standing to the Junkanoo Estates Ltd.'s credit in the account 32377;
 - b. on 28 February 2014, UBS (Bahamas) Ltd. without any reasonable ground declared the loan in "default" and demanded Junkanoo Estates Ltd. to pay the principal along with interest and "breakage penalty" of US$140,000.00 or to vacate the Residential Premises, while on 7 March 2014, it made announcement in the local newspapers that it is "winding down the banking side of its operations over the next year"; and

“1. November 2017 by the Respondents in Consolidated Action No. 01620 of 2014 / No. 01451 of 2015 (“Statement of Claim”) in which perjury was alleged¹⁷ for the first time and which reads in part:

“617. Counsel for UBS said during the hearing: “The difference is because my learned friend would know there was a set-off. That’s why there is a slight distinction between what’s in the pleadings. If my learned friend would see in the writ, it says the amount due as of the 11th of April. But since then there was a set-off, that is how we came to the figures in the affidavit.” (Page 6, lines 1 to 7 of the transcript), which was a lie because, in fact, the letter mentioned above also contained the Manifest of Errors regarding the Breakage penalty in the amount of USD$140,000, erroneously calculated by the Plaintiff, and a withholding of that wrongly calculated, thereby Breakage penalty was misrepresented as a set-off.”

Before and during the summary judgement hearing before the Supreme Court on 23 March 2015, a certain officer and attorney of UBS (Bahamas) Ltd. agreed to bring about a situation which would or might deceive Evans J. performing public duties by filing a fraudulent affidavit and by making false statements at this hearing.

In 2017, Yuri Starostenko and Irina Tsareva applied to the Attorney General by way of a letter motion dated 27 October 2017 ("Letter Motion") sent on 27 October 2017 by emails timed at 11:48 AM and at 03:18 PM, asking the Attorney-General to act on the basis of facts of perjury committed by Attorney and the deponent of the Affidavit on behalf of UBS (Bahamas) Ltd and alleging that:

“the order for possession [was] obtained on summary judgment by fraud” (square brackets added); and “UBS . . . filed a fraudulent affidavit, omitting most of the facts, obtained Summary Judgment for possession against us, while we were misinformed by our former attorney regarding the date of hearing and so was not present at it.” A copy of the Letter Motion dated 27 October 2017 is now produced and shown to me, marked as ‘Exhibit 4’.

Recently, Yuri Starostenko and Irina Tsareva repeated their request to the Attorney-General to act on the basis of facts contained in the Letter of Motion by mail sent to Monque Millar, a staff member at the Office of the Attorney General, on 24 July 2024, timed at 17:44, which reads in part:

“Perhaps most importantly, however, the Attorney General, is empowered by The Constitution of the Commonwealth of The Bahamas "to institute and undertake criminal proceedings against any person before any court in respect of any offence against the law of The Bahamas;" and "to take over and continue any such criminal proceedings that may have been instituted by any other person or authority;" (see paragraphs (a) and (b) of Article 78 of The Constitution).” A copy of the email sent on 27 October 2017 is now produced and shown to me, marked as ‘Exhibit 5’.

The fact is that the Summary Judgment Order was procured by fraud upon the court which was misled as to material circumstances by UBS (Bahamas) Ltd.’s attorney, resulting in the rendition of a judgment which would not have been given if the whole conduct of the case had been fair, was the basis of the Respondents’ application, filed 21 February 2024, to have the Summary Judgment Order set aside on the ground that UBS (Bahamas) Ltd. obtained it by fraud, which is pending before the Judge in the Consolidated Action No. 01620 of 2014 / No. 01451 of 2015. A copy of the application, filed 21 February 2024, is now produced and shown to me, marked as ‘Exhibit 6’.

On this application the Respondents rely on the legal principle articulated in the judgment of David Steel, J. in Kuwait Airways v Iraqi Airways [2005] EWHC 2524 (Comm) considered by the Hon. Sir Michael Barnett, P in the Judgment of the Court of Appeal in Murphy v Hot Pancakes et al. - SCCivApp No. 95 of 2020 that “where the original judgment has been unsuccessfully appealed (without knowledge of the alleged fraud) the first instance court in the second action has jurisdiction to set aside both the original first instance judgment and appellate order (s) upholding it.”

The Summary Judgment Order was validly challenged by the Respondents on several grounds on their Appeal which was dismissed in August 2020 on only one narrow point, and Starostenkos are still pursuing remedies available on the Appeal by way of judicial review.

From 23 March 2015, even if it was obtained by fraud, without us being in court due to the wrong date given to us by the lawyer acting then, the Judge pointed out that the first issue would be for the parties to agree on a trial date.

Lena Bonaby is wrong to assert that the Respondents “have not

¹⁸ See the Supreme Court Ruling dated 8 May 2023, which reads at paragraph 32:

“32. The delay caused thereby has deprived the Plaintiffs [Respondents] of a trial date and to make an order in the Defendant’s p[ro]UBS] favour would only further delay the trial. The Court will in no way intervene causing the Plaintiffs further expense and inconvenience. In all, the Plaintiffs [Respondents] have already been prejudiced by the [Respondent’s] application and the time it has taken to have the matter finally determined.” (Square brackets, underline added, some cites omitted)

¹⁹ See here below the Response to paragraph (13) of the Lena Bonaby Affidavit, which reads in part:

“The effects of the 27 February 2018 Execution were, as follows:

- A. The process issued on the Summary Judgment Order was returned satisfied in whole.
- B. The Summary Judgment Order was fulfilled through delivery of possession sought by UBS (Bahamas) Ltd.
- C. After the Execution, the Summary Judgment Order had lost its coercive effect, and no further proceedings were necessary because UBS (Bahamas) Ltd. had obtained all the reliefs sought that was available to UBS (Bahamas) Ltd. at law under the Summary Judgment Order.”

²⁰ See here below the Response to paragraph (13) of the Lena Bonaby Affidavit, which reads in part:

“on 27 February 2018, instead of being employed for the maintenance of law and order, the preservation of peace and enforcement of all laws with which the Police Force is charged under section 4 of the Police Force Act, five police officers were provided for private purposes contrary to section 125(1)(k) of this Act to the Deputy Provost Marshall Jack Davis and locksmith at the direction of UBS (Bahamas) Ltd., its voluntary liquidator or UBS AG in the course of an unlawful execution (“27 February 2018 Execution”) of a writ of possession wrongly issued by a Registrar of the Supreme Court, acting without jurisdiction vested in “the Judge, Magistrate, Justices of the Peace or Coroner”[#] under the Police Force Act, making these police officers unable at law to assist anybody executing a warrant which was not one lawfully “issued by a judge, magistrate or justice of the peace” under section 44(1) of the Police Force Act.”[#]

February 2018, albeit illegal, to UBS (Bahamas) Ltd.

Thus, on 27 February 2018, the Summary Judgment Order had lost its coercive effect, and no further proceedings were necessary because UBS (Bahamas) Ltd. had obtained all the relief sought that was available to it under the Summary Judgment Order.

Currently, since 27 February 2018, UBS (Bahamas) Ltd. holds both the possession of the Residential Premises and the Mortgage, as a security interest in these Residential Premises, the Fair Market Value of which was increasing steadily since 2012 according to the valuations prepared by duly licensed Certified Appraisers, as follows:

- A. $2,800,000.00 (Appraisal Report dated 20 August 2012);
- B. $3,355,000.00 (Appraisal Report dated 29 April 2016);
- C. $3,684,000.00 (Appraisal Report dated 26 December 2016);
- D. $3,417,939.00 (Opinion of Value dated 25 September 2023); and
- E. $3,655,375.00 (Opinion of Value dated 7 December 2023);²¹ which is now almost four (4) times greater than the amount of $920,164.87 specified in the Summary Judgment Order.

Therefore, a substantial dispute between Junkanoo Estates Ltd. and UBS (Bahamas) Ltd. as to the debt owing or due is still remains unresolved because: (i) the UBS (Bahamas) Ltd.'s evidence as to the amount of $920,164.87 specified in the Summary Judgment Order ("Summary Judgment Evidence"), alleged by the Respondents to be fraudulent, was never tested; and (ii) the Respondents' evidence, which contested the facts presented by UBS (Bahamas) Ltd., challenging the Summary Judgment

“4. . . . It is apparent from the transcript of the hearing, which has been put before the Board, that no real attempt was made to present the defendants’ case at this hearing. Counsel for the defendants had by mistake put the hearing into his diary for 25 March, as a result of which Mr and Mrs Starostenko were not present and Counsel was not properly prepared. An affidavit had been sworn on behalf of the defendants which, when read with the voluminous correspondence exhibited, could be said to support the defence to which the Board has referred. However, it was still in the process of being filed and was not before the court. Counsel for the defendants observed that “to that extent” the application for summary judgment was opposed. . . . Evans J gave judgment for the debt claimed and for possession in default of payment, without prejudice to the defendants’ right to pursue their counterclaim.” (Some cites omitted, underline and ellipsis added)

²³ See the Judgment of the Privy Council given on 3 April 2017 in Junkanoo Estate Ltd and others (Appellants) v UBS Bahamas Ltd (In Voluntary Liquidation) (Respondent) (Bahamas) [2017] UKPC 8, Privy Council Appeal No. 0052 of 2016, which reads at paragraphs 3 and paragraph 4 in part:

“3. The defendants say that they have a defence. This is that the alleged defaults were due to UBS’s own breaches of their obligations in relation to the management of the invested funds, in particular in failing to provide an electronic trading platform for the investment of the funds under management and failing to carry out certain trades. It is also said that there is a cross-claim for damages flowing from the same breaches. It is unnecessary to examine these points in greater detail. As a result of the procedural mishaps described below, they have never been examined by the courts below. The Board think it right to approach the present application on the assumption that they are arguable, without deciding whether or not they are.” (Underline added)

“4. . . . Counsel for the defendants observed that “to that extent” the application for summary judgment was opposed. . . . It appears not to have been appreciated that the defence which the defendants wished to raise was not just that the debt was abated by the cross-claim, which might in some circumstances have amounted to an equitable set-off, but that the event of default which was said to have made the debt payable was brought about by UBS’s breaches of duty. This may or may not have been a good point, but Counsel’s concession meant that that was never decided. Evans J gave judgment for the debt claimed and for possession in default of payment, without prejudice to the defendants’ right to pursue their counterclaim.” (Some cites omitted, underline and ellipsis added)

I am advised by Lennox Paton that, also on 29 September 2022, the Starostenkos made a complaint with the JLSC against the Honourable Madam JA Maureen Crane-Scott. The Starostenkos allege that, on the hearing of their application to re-open Appeal No 24, Justice Crane Scott treated them in an “egregious and hostile manner” and inappropriately gave UBSBL an advantage at the hearing. The Belief

I believe that the ends of justice would be served by the entry of a default judgment against the Defendant UBS (BAHAMAS) LDT (IN VOLUNTARY LIQUIDATION), together with imposing interest and fixed costs.

The Jurat

I depose hereto on the basis of my personal knowledge of the matters referred to and I declare that, unless otherwise stated, the content thereof is, to the best of my knowledge, information and belief, true and correct.

[Actions and Counterclaims consolidated by Order of the Judge dated 4 November 2015]

STATEMENT - ORDER 52 COMMITTAL (R.S.C. 1978)

1. I, Yuri Starostenko, of the Western District of the New Providence Island, one of the Islands of The Commonwealth of the Bahamas, the Second Plaintiff in the above-named action Pro Se, on behalf of the Plaintiffs, submit this Statement to assist this Honorable Court in the exercise of its powers under Order 52 of the Supreme Court Rules setting out:
 - 1.1. names and descriptions of applicants and persons sought to be committed;
 - 1.2. the offence against the Act to establish a Code of crimes punishable on indictment, and of certain similar and other offences punishable on summary conviction, commenced 1 January 1927, which is hereinafter referred to as "the Penal Code" punishable as perjury or as subornation of perjury;
 - 1.3. the breach of undertaking given to this Honorable Court;
 - 1.4. the grounds on which the application for committal of these persons is sought.
2. The application for committal is of considerable significance both to the public interest in the prosecution of crime, competing and conflicting public interests, and the illegal or unlawful conduct of the civil proceedings and to the individuals involved.

Particulars of persons sought to be committed

3. Lena Bonaby, an Associate at the law firm Delaney Partners, is an agent of the joint voluntary liquidators of UBS (Bahamas) LTD (In Voluntary Liquidation) and a person who was duly authorised by UBS (Bahamas) LTD (In Voluntary Liquidation) to make an Affidavit in support of an application for leave to market the property belonging to the First Plaintiff.

4. The joint voluntary liquidators of UBS (Bahamas) LTD (In Voluntary Liquidation) are John Delaney, since 1st April 2015, and Prince Rahming, since 7th June 2017.
5. UBS (Bahamas) LTD (In Voluntary Liquidation), in the course of being voluntarily wound up, has breached an implied undertaking given to this Honorable Court which could be enforced by an order of committal against directors of the Defendant whose powers ceased on 1st April 2015 and the Defendant did not approve the continuance of such powers.
6. For the purposes of Section 229 of the Companies Act, 1992, the above-named joint voluntary liquidators are deemed to exercise all powers given by this Act to the official liquidator, and more particularly the power to undertake in the course of any legal proceedings in the name and on behalf of UBS (Bahamas) LTD (In Voluntary Liquidation).

Offence under the Penal Code

7. Wilful and corrupt perjury on the part of Lena Bonamy contrary to section 426 of the Penal Code, which reads:

“Whoever fabricates evidence, with intent to defeat, obstruct or pervert the course of justice in any proceeding, shall be liable to the same penalties as if he had committed perjury in that proceeding.”

8. Perjury within the meaning of section 423 of the Penal Code, which reads:

- (1) “perjury is an assertion as to a matter of fact, opinion, belief or knowledge made by a witness in a judicial proceeding as part of his evidence, either upon oath or in any form allowed by law to be substituted for an oath, whether such evidence is given in open court or by affidavit or otherwise, such assertion being known to the witness to be false, and being intended by him to mislead the court, jury or persons holding the proceeding;
- (2) every person is a witness within the meaning of this Title who actually gives his evidence upon oath or in any such form as aforesaid, whether he was competent to be a witness or not, and whether his evidence was admissible or not;
- (3) a person fabricates evidence if he causes any circumstance to exist, or makes any false entry in any book, account or record, or makes any document containing a false statement, or forges any document, with intent to mislead any public officer, judge, magistrate, juror, or member of a tribunal acting in any judicial proceeding;
- (4) every proceeding is judicial within the meaning of this Title which is held in, or under, the authority of a court or before any justice of the peace or any arbitrator or umpire, or any person or body of persons authorised by law to make an enquiry and take evidence therein upon oath, or before any person, or body of persons, acting as a court, commission of enquiry or tribunal having power to hold such judicial proceeding or enquiry whether duly constituted or not, and whether such proceeding or enquiry was duly instituted or not so as to authorise the holding of the same, and although the proceeding or enquiry, was held in the wrong place or was otherwise invalid."

Breach of undertaking given to the Court

9. Breach on the part of UBS (Bahamas) LTD (In Voluntary Liquidation) of an implied undertaking given by UBS (Bahamas) LTD (In Voluntary Liquidation) to this Honorable Court in the course of the proceedings, which was to fulfill the possession condition, namely, to "carryout the necessary repairs/steps to safeguard the value of the premises" belonging to the First Plaintiff.

Grounds for committal of Lena Bonamy

10. The Plaintiffs will rely on the provisions offered by The Penal Code of the Bahamas in Sections 423, 424 and 426 in order to assist this Honorable Court in its course of promotion of the public interest in the prosecution of crime that is unrelated to the conduct of the relevant civil proceedings for the purpose to punishing persons who mislead a Civil Court, and more particularly in this Statement—
 - (a) for making any false statement or false representation punishable under this Code; or
 - (b) for unlawfully, wilfully, falsely, fraudulently, deceitfully, maliciously, or corruptly taking, making, signing, or subscribing any oath, affirmation, solemn declaration, statutory declaration, affidavit, deposition, notice, certificate, or other writing; where it is sufficient to set forth the substance of the offence charged, and before which court or person the offence was committed without setting forth the proceedings or any part of the proceedings in the course of which the offence was committed, and without setting forth the authority of any court or person before whom the offence was committed.
11. In a situation such in this action in the overall public interest if someone who has lied to the Court, or has not provided full and frank information, he should make a full confession and provide full and frank disclosure to the Court, otherwise the Court would report their attempts to mislead the Court and the other parties to the relevant prosecuting authorities.
12. In the circumstances, when the Civil Court has no power similar to that of the criminal Court, or the relevant public authority, to deal with the illegal or unlawful conduct that it is satisfied exists, in such a situation in addition to the public interests that a civil Court should have all relevant information before it and that consideration should be given to punishing persons who mislead a civil Court, the competing public interest relating to the illegal or unlawful conduct arises for consideration (e.g. the prosecution of crime).

13. This is because the only effective course open to the Court to promote the public interest in the prosecution of crime that is unrelated to the conduct of the relevant civil proceedings, is to report the illegal or unlawful conduct to the relevant public authority.

Ground for committal of the joint voluntary liquidators

14. The Plaintiffs will rely on the Ruling of then Hon. Mr. Justice Milton Evans dated 21st December 2017 which in the Paragraph 27 reads:

"27. In these circumstances of this case and for the reason given above I grant leave to the Defendants [the Plaintiffs in this case] to lodge an appeal but I refuse the application for a stay of the Order for possession. This would allow the Plaintiff [the Defendant in this action] if they so desire to take possession and carryout the necessary repairs/steps to safeguard the value of the premises [the property belonging to the First plaintiff in this action]." (Square brackets added)

Dated this 9th day of November 2018.

SIXTH AFFIDAVIT - OFFENCE UNDER THE PENAL CODE - BREACH OF UNDERTAKING GIVEN TO COURT

I, Yuri Starostenko, of the Western District of the New Providence Island, one of the Islands of the Commonwealth of The Bahamas, the above-named Second Plaintiff state as follows:

1. I am a material witness on behalf of the Plaintiffs in this case.
2. On 8th November 2018, the Defendant in this action served on the Plaintiffs an affidavit of Lena Bonamy filed with this Honorable Court on 7th November 2018 ("the Affidavit").

Statements in the Affidavit

3. In Paragraph 5 of the Affidavit Lena Bonamy states, inter alia:

"On 27 February 2018 UBS obtain possession of the property known as Jazz House belonging to Junkanoo Estates Ltd ..."

"... UBS has sought to put the Property in a marketable state by engaging the services of cleaners ..."

"... to-date UBS has spent approximately $35,000.00 on the mentioned expenses to maintain the Property. UBS anticipates spending approximately $5,000.00 per month going forward on general maintenance of the Property."

4. In Paragraph 15 of the Affidavit Lena Bonamy states, inter alia:

5. "... the offers received were lower than anticipated and the highest offer was too low to satisfy the outstanding liabilities (including the mortgage and interest accrued)[that equal at most $1,000,000]" (Square brackets added)

Evidence of "maintenance"

6. On 21st August 2018, Miquel Knowles, the proprietor of Moving U Places, a moving company, sent an email timed to 22:53 to irina Tsareva-Starostenko which reads, inter alia:

"Moving U Places was contracted by Delaney Partners & Co. on (April 27, 2018) to remove all the furniture and personal effect from Jazz House. Upon our initial survey of the job, the home was found in utter disarray, with furniture and clothing, dead rodents and animals running all around the property."

7. A copy of this email is now produced and shown to me marked "EXH 1".
8. VAT Sales Receipt/Invoice of the New Providence Water Development Company Limited for service from 29th January 2018 to 28th February 2018 shows, inter alia, gallons used 11,480 and the balance of Junkanoo Estates Ltd's indebtedness $2,130.29. A copy of this VAT Sales Receipt/Invoices is now produced and shown to me marked "EXH 2".
9. VAT Sales Receipt/Invoice of the New Providence Water Development Company Limited for service from 1st October 2018 to 31st October 2018 shows, inter alia, no gallons used and the same balance $2,130.29, as it was on 28th February 2018. A copy of this VAT Sales Receipt/Invoices is now produced and shown to me marked "EXH 3".

Offence under the Penal Code

10. An independent observer would be satisfied beyond any reasonable doubt that UBS, at least in the period 27th February 2018 to 27th April 2018, did not engage the services of cleaners and did not spend approximately $5,000.00 per month on general maintenance of the Property.
11. Thus, the above-named evidence establishes that Lena Bonamy fabricated evidence, with intent to defeat, obstruct or pervert the course of justice in the proceeding of this Honorable Court if she had committed perjury in that proceeding by stating that:

"... UBS has sought to put the Property in a marketable state by engaging the services of ..., cleaners ..."

"... to-date UBS has spent approximately $35,000.00 on the mentioned expenses to maintain the Property. UBS anticipates spending approximately $5,000.00 per month going forward on general maintenance of the Property."

Evidence of undertaking given to the Court

12. Then Hon. Mr. Justice Milton Evans made the Ruling dated 21st December 2017 which in the Paragraph 27 reads:

"27. In these circumstances of this case and for the reason given above I grant leave to the Defendants [the Plaintiffs in this case] to lodge an appeal but I refuse the application for a stay of the Order for possession. This would allow the Plaintiff [the Defendant in this action] if they so desire to take possession and carryout the necessary repairs/steps to safeguard the value of the premises [the property belonging to the First plaintiff in this action].” (Square brackets added)

13. It was an implied undertaking given by the Defendant’s attorneys having a full effect on the Defendant as the party giving the undertaking who has made an implied statement to the effect that it understands the terms of the undertaking and the consequences of failure to comply with it.
14. This undertaking given to this Honorable Court has the same force as a judgment or order and a breach will be a contempt and enforceable in the same way notwithstanding that the Ruling dated 21st December 2017 does not contain a penal notice.
15. The terms of the undertaking are not wider than any order which this Honorable Court has power to make.

Evidence of value of the premises

16. The property known as Jazz House belonging to Junkanoo Estates Ltd was appraised by UBS in 2012 as having a value of $2,800,000.
17. Since then it has been increasing in value year by year due to the enhancements carried out in the community of Lyford Cay.
18. On 26th December 2017, the property was appraised by a certified surveyor as having Fair Market Value of $3,684,000 and this appraisal report had been added to the evidence filed with this Honorable Court.

Breach of undertaking given to the Court

19. An independent observer would be satisfied beyond any reasonable doubt that the defendant did not carryout the necessary repairs/steps to safeguard the value of the premises known as Jazz House belonging to Junkanoo Estates Ltd.
20. Thus, the above-named evidence establishes disobedience by contempt of court proceedings on the part of the Defendant.
21. Breach of an undertaking to the court is a contempt and an abuse of process regardless of the intentions of the Defendant, the contemnor, who is ignorant as to the effect of an implied undertaking given by its attorneys.

Assistance in the breach of undertaking

22. Lena Bonamy by fabricating evidence, with intent to defeat, obstruct or pervert the course of justice in the proceeding of this Honorable Court assisted in the breach of the Defendant of the undertaking to the Court and that assistance is a criminal contempt.

Conclusion

23. Thus, the above-named evidence establishes both the offence on the part of Lena Bonamy and the breach of undertaking to this Honorable Court on the part of UBS (Bahamas) LTD (In Voluntary Liquidation).

Unless otherwise stated the contents of this affidavit are stated from my own knowledge.

I believe that facts stated in this affidavit are true.

Mr. & Mrs. Starostenko,

In response to your last email, you are still not appreciating or acknowledging the underlying factor of this situation. Which is the fact that you fail to make any payments, for the storage of your furniture and personal effects, since (June 5, 2018)

Moving U Places cannot be held responsible, for any of the reported missing items, with the exception of the refrigerator, which was never actually missing, and you are quite aware of what happened to it. As it relates to the other items, Moving U Places was contracted by Delaney Partners & Co. on (April 27, 2018) to remove all the furniture and personal effect from Jazz house. Upon our initial survey of the job, the home was found in utter disarray, with furniture and clothing, dead rodents and animals running all around the property. There was also a young man on the premises, as "security" which may suggest, that unauthorized persons were accessing the property.

With that being said, at no point during the packing process, was the snorkeling equipment that you claim were in the guest cottage, ever seen. Moving U Places packed ALL the items that were left on the premises, in the presence of representatives from Delaney Partners & Co., who can also confirm that the mentioned items were NOT in the guest house.

It should also noted, that you were duly informed that your belongings were placed in storage at our warehouse on (May 7, 2018). From that time to now, you and your family, along with others persons that you allowed to access your property were at our warehouse, removing and taking items. The staff of Moving U Places was not a part of these processes, and cannot be held responsible for what was removed from storage.

Therefore, at this time, Moving U Places cannot and will not be held responsible for any items that are now just being reported missing. Such matters should have arisen months ago, as you being the owners of the properties, and knowing the circumstances of your eviction, should have carried out due diligence, and inspection of your property to ensure to everything is accounted for, and any discrepancies resolved.

The staff of Moving U Places did our best, going beyond our responsibilities, to accommodate you every time you requested access to the warehouse facilities, most of which times, you never showed up or canceled, last minute after our personnel were already in place.

We at Moving U Places, are sorely disappointed in your actions, as we went above and beyond to assist you, knowing your circumstances, despite of non-payment of fees, we still give you service. Please be reminded as you well know this is the second notice we receiving from you, after the first one by Whatsapp on August 14, 2018, (not 11) in reply to our demand to help us in finding missing items belonging to our friends from Canada, of high value, which were stored in our guest cottage.

Please note that we never received any notice of removing from you before August 14, 2018.

During the meeting on 15 August 15 with my husband, Yuri Starostenko, you stated that you would like to keep the furniture further, but that landlord of the storehouse said to move it and you are moving your operation from this storage. You repeated this statement in front of our friends Dave and Darel, from Canada, belongings of which are missed during the movement from the Jazzhouse, in Lyford cay to your storage in Bacardi field

We asking you urgently to provide us with the contact details of the landlord.

We regret to receive this unexpected notice. While you well know that

- the whole moving is the part of the operation to harass our family, made unlawfully and against your will and without our permission.
 - we were induced in a relationship with you by UBS, against our will and it was not our choice and we never agreed on any terms or conditions of that relationship
 - we suffered the loss in that item which has to be assessed once we will open all the boxes, which we have no space where to do now, so far we can stay that points below are missed.
- So far the certain losses are:

1. - the brand new refrigerator of 700$.
2. - our friends brand new snorkeling equipment, living items, dry food, personal belongings
3. - the artworks of our friend and the supplies to work with, in order to create pieces
4. - the whole snorkeling equipment of our family of eight, complete, used, not new but working.

In that, the total value of missing items is much more than the total amount of the storage fees in your invoices.

We always hope in awakening and finding a peaceful solution and inviting you to cooperate and abstain from participating in the malicious prosecution against our family in order to avoid any involvement in litigations in course against UBS Bahamas Ltd (in voluntary liquidation) and their attorneys Marco Turnquest and Ghizelle Cargill personally, here in a copy.

Waiting for the requested information and your comments regarding missed items.

Regards.

OPEN LETTER

Dear Sir,

On 20th February 2018, on the presumption that the Ministry of National Security has portfolio responsibility for the public safety of The Bahamas and the security agencies I gave you and the Commissioner of Police

NOTICE OF POTENTIAL ABUSE BY THE POLICE OF THEIR POWERS AND DUTIES

Despite the above Notice, on 27th February 2018, my wife with 5 minors, having not committed any offence and being within the "castle" lawfully and not in order to escape, had been evicted by the Deputy Provost Marshall of The Bahamas and 5 Police Officers, who without a warrant or an invitation by the householders entered the premises by breaking open the outer door and the use of unreasonable force, having no cause to suspect that any property, for search of which they have gained such entry, has been stolen or unlawfully obtained.

In so doing, these Police Officers instead of being employed in and throughout The Bahamas for the maintenance of law and order and the preservation of peace under Section 4 of the Police Force Act, 2009, were provided for private purposes of an offshore bank in contravention of Subsection 125(1)(k) of the Police Force Act, 2009.

As a result, the state of The Bahamas failed to fulfill a positive obligation to take any measures that it was in its power to take and which were in accordance with the Statute Laws of The Bahamas to secure to the woman with 5 minors the private repose and security, members of the Police Force were interfering in the execution of civil process between subject and subject, acting outside their powers, duties and privileges under Part V of the Police Force Act, 2009 and in violation of legal principles of the common law which values "the private repose and security of every man in his own house, which it considers as his castle, beyond the civil satisfaction of a creditor." (Per LORD ELLENBOROUGH in Burdett v Abbott (1811) 14 East, 1; 104 ER 501 at pp 154,155).

Additionally, the state of the Bahamas failed to fulfill a positive obligation under Section 4 of the Child Protection Act, 2007, to take the authoritative, economic, judicial or other measures that it was in its power to take with respect to these minors, who were within the jurisdiction of the state of The Bahamas for the purposes of Subsection 3(2) of the Child Protection Act, 2007, the purpose of which "is to clearly state that in deciding these types of matters whether before a court of law or before any person the child's welfare shall be of paramount consideration." (per DAME ALLEN, President in R.B (a juvenile) v. Attorney General - [2016] 1 BHS J. No. 128) and "clearly states that the "guiding principle" in subsection (1) is to be applied in every situation where all matters relating to a "child" are under consideration and its application is not limited solely to those matters referenced in subsection 3(1)." (Per CRANE-SCOTT, Justice of Appeal in R.B (a juvenile) v. Attorney General - [2016] 1 BHS J. No. 128)

By virtue of the matters stated above, the State of The Bahamas failed to secure to these minors the rights guaranteed by the Child Protection Act, 2007, Ch. 132 and the Constitution of the Commonwealth of The Bahamas.

With the present, I hereby give you

NOTICE OF OBLIGATIONS

That the matters with which the Ministry of National Security is involved with internationally through State Membership include the United Nations Convention against Transnational Organized Crime adopted by the General Assembly resolution 55/25 of 15th November 2000 and came into force on 29th September 2003 (the "Convention"), which is the main instrument in the fight against transnational organized crime and which determined to deny safe havens to those who engage in transnational organized crime by prosecuting their crimes wherever they occur and called upon all States to recognize the links between transnational organized criminal activities and acts of terrorism.

That The Bahamas as one of the States that ratify this instrument commits itself to taking a series of measures against transnational organized crime, including the creation of domestic criminal offences such as participation in an organized criminal group, money laundering, corruption and obstruction of justice.

That by way of the First Report and the First Letter of Request served on the Anti-Corruption and Financial Crime Unit of the Royal Bahamas Police Force on 14th and 19th November 2018 and the Seventh Complaint served on the Magistrate's Court, I, Yuri Starostenko, made allegations of offences committed by a structured group of three or more persons within UBS AG (a Swiss Bank), existing for a period of time and acting in concert with the aim of committing offences established in accordance with Article 6 of the Convention called “Criminalization of the laundering of proceeds of crime” in order to obtain, directly or indirectly, a financial or other material benefit.

That by way of the Eight, Ninth and Sixteenth Affidavits filed with the Supreme Court on 22nd and 23rd November 2018 and on 4th January 2019, I, Yuri Starostenko, made allegations of offences committed by a structured group existing for a period of time and acting in concert with the aim of committing offences established in accordance with Article 23 of the Convention called “Criminalization of obstruction of justice” in order to obtain, directly or indirectly, a financial or other material benefit by “the promise, offering or giving of an undue advantage to the production of evidence in a proceeding in relation to the commission of offences covered by this Convention”, where the said group is comprised of John Delaney QC, the senior partner of the law firm Delaney Partners and one of the Joint Liquidators of UBS (Bahamas) Ltd, Lena Bonaby, an Associate at the law firm Delaney Partners, and Renate Raeber engaged by the Joint Liquidators of UBS as the Liquidation Consultant.

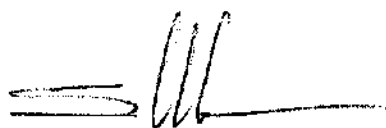

REQUESTS

Having regard to the deep involvement of John Delaney and Delaney Partners, the firm, in dealings with land and other matters in Lyford Cay, which, historically, was a safe haven and refuge to criminals of all kinds, in particular to those who engage in transnational organized crime and criminal activities, who were free to commit offences or crimes of any nature in their own countries and then come to The Bahamas and say that they did not believe it was a crime at all and act on that sort of belief grounded only in their violent passions and blind prejudices in their own favour,

I hereby respectfully request that the Ministry of National Security exercises the authority delegated by the state of The Bahamas and fulfills a positive obligation under Article 24 of the Convention and take appropriate measures within its means to provide effective protection from potential retaliation for me and my family, as witnesses who are ready to give testimony concerning offences covered by the Convention, even if criminal proceedings have not yet begun, in the context of this case, where in the proceedings of the Supreme Court UBS (Bahamas) Ltd appeared but failed to prove its case, and therefore became non-suited, and in the proceedings of the Court of Appeal, on 5th November 2019, UBS (Bahamas) Ltd lost its application for a stay of our competent Appeal, a backbone of its delaying tactics which serve no useful purpose but are based on technicalities, the only remaining means of criminals within and employed by UBS AG (a Swiss Bank) is deterrence through the threat of retaliation.

Also, I hereby respectfully request that the Ministry of National Security exercises the authority delegated by the state of The Bahamas and fulfills a positive obligation under Article 25 of the Convention and to provide assistance and protection to me and my family, being victims of offences covered by the Convention, in this case of threat of retaliation, provide access to compensation and restitution for victims of offences covered by the Convention and enable our views and concerns, as victims, to be presented and considered at appropriate stages of criminal proceedings against the above-named offenders.

In the meantime, I remain yours faithfully,

Yuri Starostenko, pro se

SECOND OPEN LETTER

Dear Sir,

On 13th November 2019, I wrote an Open Letter to you and gave you a Notice of Obligations on the presumption that the Ministry of National Security is delegated by the state of The Bahamas to be involved through State Membership with the United Nations Convention against Transnational Organized Crime adopted by the General Assembly resolution 55/25 of 15th November 2000 (the "Convention"), which is the main instrument in the fight against transnational organized crime and identified foreign and local offences committed by structured groups of three or more persons.

With the present, I hereby give you

NOTICE OF AML/CFT DEFICIENCIES

On October 18, 2019, the Financial Action Task Force (FATF) in a document entitled "Improving Global AML/CFT Compliance: On-going Process" identified The Bahamas among jurisdictions that the FATF has determined to have strategic Anti-Money Laundering and Combating the Financing of Terrorism (AML/CFT) deficiencies (attached to this Open Letter).

In October 2018, the state of The Bahamas has provided a written high-level political commitment to work with the FATF and CFATF to strengthen the effectiveness of its AML/CFT regime and address any related technical deficiencies, and the FATF has welcomed this commitment.

In particular, the FATF states in the document:

“Since October 2018, when The Bahamas made a high-level political commitment to work with the FATF and CFATF to strengthen the effectiveness of its AML/CFT regime and address any related technical deficiencies, The Bahamas has taken steps towards improving its AML/CFT regime. These include instituting a protocol and case management system to further enhance international cooperation; initiating risk-based supervision of non-bank financial institutions; and further implementing the recent Beneficial Ownership Law to ensure the timely access to adequate, accurate, and current basic and beneficial ownership information. The Bahamas should continue to work on implementing its action plan to address its strategic deficiencies, including by: (1) demonstrating that authorities are investigating and prosecuting all types of money laundering, including complex ML cases, stand-alone money laundering, and cases involving proceeds of foreign offences, including foreign tax crimes; and (2) increasing the identification, tracing and freezing or restraining of assets and to present cases linked with foreign offences and stand-alone ML cases.”

On November 12, 2019, the Financial Crimes Enforcement Network (FinCEN) has issued Advisory FIN-2019-A007 to inform financial institutions of updates to the TAFT list of jurisdictions with strategic AML/CFT deficiencies (attached to this Open Letter).

REQUESTS

With the present, I respectfully request that the Ministry of National Security fulfills a positive obligation of the state of The Bahamas to take any measures that it is in its power to take when investigating and prosecuting:

1. The types of money laundering, involving proceeds of offences committed by a structured group of three or more persons within UBS AG (a Swiss Bank), existing for a period of time and acting in concert with the aim of committing offences established in accordance with Article 6 of the Convention called "Criminalization of the laundering of proceeds of crime" in order to obtain, directly or indirectly, a financial or other material benefit, identified in my First Report and First Letter of Request served on the Anti-Corruption and Financial Crime Unit of the Royal Bahamas Police Force on 14th and 19th November 2018 and in my Seventh Complaint served on the Magistrate's Court; and
2. The offences committed by a structured group of three persons existing for a period of time and acting in concert with the aim of committing offences established in accordance with Article 23 of the Convention called "Criminalization of obstruction of justice" in order to obtain, directly or indirectly, a financial or other material benefit by "the promise, offering or giving of an undue advantage to the production of evidence in a proceeding in relation to the commission of offences covered by this Convention", comprised of John Delaney QC, the senior partner of the law firm Delaney Partners and one of the Joint Liquidators of UBS (Bahamas) Ltd, Lena Bonaby, an Associate at the law firm Delaney Partners, and Renate Raeber engaged by the Joint Liquidators of UBS as the Liquidation Consultant identified in my Eighth, Ninth and Sixteenth Affidavits filed with the Supreme Court on 22nd and 23rd November 2018 and on 4th January 2019.

Corporate Centre, 11 East Street, Nassau, The Bahamas; email: irastaro@gmail.com; cell: +1(242)817-4372

SCHEDULE A

The grounds on which on which the orders are sought are:

- (1) George Damianos is a person who held himself out to the public by the Appraisal Report that he is engaged in the business of appraising land or purported to act as a licensed appraiser. However, on the Bahamas Real Estate Association website there is no indication of the current status of his license neither as Brokers Appraiser or Salesmen Appraiser nor as Appraiser.
- (2) The validity of the Appraisal Report is challenged on various grounds, including that the appraised value of $1,015,000 for the Property is inadequately low to be credible, that the land parcels used as comparable sales were not transferred in arm's length transactions, that comparable land sales were essentially incomparable, and that it failed to comply with the appraisal process and policies issued by the Bahamas Real Estate Association (BREA).
- (3) The error in the Appraisal Report, a valuation which falls outside a permissible margin of error which brings into question his competence and the care with which he carried out his task, was one that no reasonably informed and competent member of the profession could have made.
- (4) The Appraisal Reports, which had not been signed by a qualified duly licensed appraiser, whose opinion is scientifically valid and not the result of bias, which did not satisfy applicable BREA requirements, and which were not performed in accordance with the industry standards, is too low to be probative.
- (5) George Damianos knew that the Appraisal Report will be shown to a third party, The Honourable Madam Justice Carla D. Card-Stubbs, who will act in reliance on it.
- (6) George Damianos knew that the intended user would be UBS (Bahamas) Ltd (In Voluntary Liquidation), of which John Delaney KC is one of the two voluntary liquidators, signor partner of Lena Bonaby and a founder of Delaney Partners which is "well placed to assist clients with real estate and development legal services throughout The Bahamas" (see <https://delaneypartners.com/expertise/bahamas-real-estate-development-lawyers/>).
- (7) George Damianos has made the appraisal which is fraudulent, namely one which he knew to be false or which you made recklessly without regard to whether it is true or false, with the intention that the Appraisal Report should be acted upon, in breach of his duty to take reasonable care to give a reliable and informed opinion on the market value of the Property at the date of valuation, without considering the sale price at $2,160,000 paid by the current owner in 2008 and three recent appraisals made by certified appraisers duly licensed by the BREA who valued the Property on 20 August 2012 at $2,800,000, on 29 April 2016 at $3,355,000, and on 26 December 2016 at $3,684,000.

- (8) Lena Bonaby, the deponent, is in breach of the duty which she owes to the Court of law to take reasonable care to engage a competent and qualified duly licensed appraiser, who has no financial interest, either present or contemplated, in the opinion of value put on the Property.

OFFICE OF THE ATTORNEY GENERAL OF THE BAHAMAS

K.A. Mr. Carl Bethel

Attorney general of the Bahamas

27th October 2017 Nassau, The BahamasBy hand

Dear Sir,

Please find here below our letter sent today twice at 11.48 am and at 03.18 pm.

K.A. Attorney general of the Bahamas Mr. Carl Bethel

Dear Mr. Bethel,

We are asking you and your office with kind urgency to take under supervision our case matter in Supreme Court in order to prevent irreparable injustice and further possible offense to the Public Authority.

All the facts and legal basis are in our documents, court files and last affidavits in process of filing. We will be more than happy to provide them at your first request.

I will try to explain with my simple words here below the matter and why we are seeking so urgently your attention. Please, excuse my weakened English with a heavy Russian accent.

My husband and I are acting in person, living as permanent residents of the Bahamas for the past 10 years with six children, while the attorney for the company Mr. Philipp Lundy, is acting on Pro Bono base.

From other side is the UBS bank in voluntary liquidation.

Our case was already in the Her Majesty's Privy Council, heard on 24 February 2017 and delivered on 3 April 2017. We were acting in persons and assisted by Mr. Phillip Lundy, and Mr. Joel Benntan QC from London., both on Pro Bono base. The copy of this judgment I send by email to your attention this morning at 10.14 am.

We patiently waited for the date at Supreme Court, which was last Tuesday, 24 October, before J.Milton Evance. And hoped that Judge will start to investigate the fraud and give us an indication for committal proceedings, as from our summons. But the judge refused, on the grounds that he already dealt with that two years ago and informed us that he will deal with it Monday, 30th October 2017 with only our application for a Stay of Execution and Leave to Appeal, which he looks not minded to grant. The Deputy Provost Marschall, with the writ of possession on an interlocutory order, obtained without the leave of the court, has already been at our property in May 2016, after which we came to Privy Council. And at last hearing he was sitting in the waiting room of the J. Milton Evance's chambers, unstoppably chatting with the attorney for UBS' and waiting for the end of this short hearing, which was adjourned.

At this point we are asking your office to take it under supervision - we are dealing with lying counterpart, our case has never been heard on merits, as from Privy Council judgment confirmed, which means our Constitutional Fundamental rights to be heard are prejudiced and if the case will proceed this way, with the judge not willing to investigate fraud and lie, the Public Authority will get offence and make irreparable damages to our family. The grounds of our pledge to get your attention are:

- the danger of the further proceedings with Offence to the Public Authority
- the danger of executing the order for possession obtained on summary judgment by fraud, later appealed to the Court of Appeal of the Bahamas, at the Judicial Committee of Privy Council and because of our wrongness to not asking formally leave to Appeal at the Supreme Court, still not heard and investigated
- our fundamental constitutional, human rights to be heard would be prejudiced and all of that would create irreparable damage to our family and make of us impossible to proceed because in order to apply to the Court of Appeal we have to provide collateral for the legal expenses because if the possession of the home will be taken we will not have the collateral. For not to say that the family with six children would find itself without shelter, money and grave injustice, without ever being heard.

The chronology of facts is in all our affidavits. In simple words - we were robbed by UBS bank, who opened with us an investment facility in 2012 for 5 years while already was meditating to winding up its branch in the Bahamas. We did not know that - we put our trust in the "Ferrari" of the financial industry and even gave as collateral mortgage on our home in Lyford Cay, which was valued USD$2.8 mln at the time and USD$3.5 mln in April 2016, for the loan of USD$1.4 mln, where 50% we would keep on the investment account with USB in order to trade using their facility . After only 11 months of collaboration, where we were able to trade only for two months because of difficulties UBS created, we did not have on our account gain of USD$137,000 circa because of UBS' breaches in trade executions. Once we asked for refunds, UBS refund only USD$3,100 circa and from one side threatened to review our whole agreement and the mortgage and from other promised to "find a solution", which was - haltering our trading, by pretending that we were under obligation of keeping 50% of the loan, which we were not, should they refund wrong interests. UBS refused our humble offer to pre-pay them all interests and have loan's money in our hands, so we can trade elsewhere. Later UBS continued to calculate interests on the whole loan, even the portion they unlawfully kept and later sequestered from our account, 4 years before loan expiration and asking us to pay back the whole loan, depriving us of possibility to perform our trading business and not refunding damages generated by their own breaches. On our refusal, UBS commenced a legal action, filed a fraudulent affidavit, omitting most of the facts, obtained Summary Judgment for possession against us, while we were misinformed by our former attorney regarding the date of hearing and so was not present at it.

We ask, please, to have your attention - the justice cannot proceed if the court makes decisions based on fraudulent affirmations, if the damaged part, we, in this case, have no possibility to be heard and to bring our evidence.

But in very simple math terms, please, excuse my directness - our home last value is USD$3.5 mln, UBS' claim against us is USD$0.9 mln circa, which we do not agree. Our cross action and counterclaim was consolidated by the same J.Milton Evance and the order of the consolidation UBS' attorney not signing for the past 16 months. Our claims are USD$5.2 mln circa or alternatively USD$2.0 circa mln plus all damages to be assessed by courts has never been heard. All that we ask - the justice to be made, the fair trial without fraud and lies on public authority. Should the court found us to be wrong - there is no risk for UBS, all expenses are covered by the property value. Should UBS proceed in the way they succeeded till now the miscarriage of justice will continue.

Thank you very much in advance for bringing your attention to this urgent and clamorous matter,

Yours sincerely,

Yuri and Irina Starostenko

Dear Ms. Monique Millar, good evening.

Re: Claim No. 00496 of 2024 in the matter of the Supreme Court Act Chapter 53

Recently, I have been served by a process server engaged by the law firm Lennox Paton with the documents in Action 2024/CLE/GEN/00496 instituted by the Attorney General of the Commonwealth of The Bahamas ("Attorney General") by making an originating application to the Supreme Court under Section 29(1) of the Supreme Court Act and CPR PART 56, filed 11 June 2024, against three Respondents, including Irina Starostenko ("Originating Application"), supported by an affidavit required under CPR rule 56.1(2), filed 11 June 2024, which forms the basis of the Originating Application, sworn by Lena Bonaby ("Lena Bonaby Affidavit").

Lena Bonaby, a Partner at the law firm Delaney Partners of Mr John F. K, Delaney KC, the Senior Partner in Delaney Partners, the sole voluntary liquidator of UBS (Bahamas) Ltd (In Voluntary Liquidation), states at paragraph 1 of her Affidavit, among other things, that:

"I am duly authorized by the Claimant [the Attorney General] to make this Affidavit on its behalf."

The Originating Application, on its face, has some defects that I have identified such as, for example, the Third Respondent named Irina Starostenko does not exist, resulting in Action 2024/CLE/GEN/00496 being issued without following the procedure to ascertain the correct names of all the Respondents in order to minimize the misuse of judicial resources and act according to the Vision Statement of the Ministry of Legal Affairs and the Attorney General, which reads:

"To be the pre-eminent law chambers of the Commonwealth of The Bahamas".

And I believe that you, as a staff member at the Office of the Attorney General, would share one of its primary responsibilities, which is,

"promoting access to justice for all and transparency in the legal system".

Perhaps most importantly, however, the Attorney General, is empowered by The Constitution of the Commonwealth of The Bahamas "to institute and undertake criminal proceedings against any person before any court in respect of any offence against the law of The Bahamas;" and "to take over and continue any such criminal proceedings that may have been instituted by any other person or authority;" (see paragraphs (a) and (b) of Article 78 of The Constitution).

I would like to inform you that in 2017 I and my husband Yuri Starostenko applied to the Attorney General by way of a letter motion dated 27 October 2017 ("Letter Motion") to the previous Attorney General to exercise these power and to act on the basis of facts concerning the perjury committed by an attorney and

I also believe that the Attorney General is more than a mere gatekeeper, to whom The Constitution gave the authority, among other things, to relieve errors that amount to fundamental defects in process or justice. Non consideration of the facts contained in our Letter Motion led to such an injustice, and I ask the current Attorney General to not turn a blind eye to such obvious offences based on the facts asserted in the Statement of Claim, filed 14 November 2017, in the Consolidated Action, making, among others, the following claim:

1. Claim No. 10 (malicious prosecution claim) against UBS (BAHAMAS) LDT (IN VOLUNTARY LIQUIDATION), GEORGE MAILLIS and MARCO TURNQUEST seeking striking out of the Writ of possession issued by UBS (BAHAMAS) LDT; indemnification for damages assessed, with pre-judgment and post-judgment interest at rate of 6% per annum; and remedies provided by statute in sections 423, 424, 426, 430, 432 and 433 of the Penal Code of The Bahamas for the malicious institution of judicial proceedings;
2. Claim No. 11 (conspiracy to defraud) against UBS (BAHAMAS) LDT (IN VOLUNTARY LIQUIDATION), KEVIN LEE PRICE, THIBAUD HALEWYCK, GEORGE MAILLIS and MARCO TURNQUEST seeking remedies provided by statute in sections 423, 424, 426, 430, 432 and 433 of the Penal Code of The Bahamas and Rules 44 and 50 of the CPR for conspiracy to defraud the public and the judicial system; and
3. Claim No. 12 (malicious abuse of process claim) against UBS (BAHAMAS) LDT (IN VOLUNTARY LIQUIDATION) and MARCO TURNQUEST seeking indemnification for damages assessed, with pre-judgment and post-judgment interest at rate of 6% per annum; and remedies provided by statute in sections 423, 424, 426, 430, 432 and 433 of the Penal Code of The Bahamas and Rules 44 and 50 of the CPR for the malicious execution of an order for possession of land. (See a copy of the Standard Claim (Amended) in Form G3 (Rules 8.1(1)(a)_ 8.1(5)) dated 19 February 2024 and e-filed 21 February 2024 in the Consolidated Action)

Finally, at this first contact, for the sake of argument that the Originating Application may be found erroneous, I would like to ask you to clarify how the Attorney General authorized Lena Bonaby "to make this Affidavit on its behalf", as mentioned in her Affidavit quoted here above.

Sincerely,

Irina Litvak-Starostenko

NOTICE OF APPLICATION

1. The claimants make application seeking an order setting aside the Order of this Court made on 23 March 2015 on the ground that it had been procured by fraud and relying on the legal principle articulated in the judgment of David Steel, J. in Kuwait Airways v Iraqi Airways [2005] EWHC 2524 (Comm) and considered by the Hon. Sir Michael Barnett, P in the judgment of the Court of Appeal in Murphy v Hot Pancakes et al. - SCCivApp No. 95 of 2020 that “where the original judgment has been unsuccessfully appealed (without knowledge of the alleged fraud) the first instance court in the second action has jurisdiction to set aside both the original first instance judgment and appellate order (s) upholding it.”
2. The ground of the application is that a judgment may be set aside at any time for after a discovered fraud upon the court where it was misled as to material circumstances, or its process was abused, resulting in the rendition of a judgment which would not have been given if the whole conduct of the case had been fair.
3. The following written evidence will be used at the hearing of the application: Claim No. 10 (malicious prosecution claim) and Claim No. 11 (conspiracy to defraud) of the Statement of Claim, filed in this action 14 November 2017 and certified by the Statement of Truth, seeking inter alia remedies provided by statute in sections 423, 424, 426, 430, 432 and 433 of the Penal Code of The Bahamas and Rules 44 and 50 of the Civil Procedure Rules.

RULING

RSC Order 18/12 - Request for Further and Better Particulars/Late filing of application and Inexcusable delay/ RSC Order 24/10 - Production and Inspection of Documents

1. By Summons filed herein on 17th April, 2019 the Defendant sought an Order pursuant to Order 18 rule 12 (O. 18/19) and Order 24 rule 10 (O. 24/10) of the Rules of the was no need for the Court to make an Order as in the instant application. It was submitted that the Defendant was being disingenuous in its application and was intentionally trying to delay the matter further.

Conclusion:

32. The Writ of Summons in this action is extensive and exhaustive. While one would like to think the Plaintiffs have had benefit of legal advice, especially as to drafting and formulating their case, they still appear pro se and cannot be expected to produce pleadings that are of the standard expected of the trained legal professional. They do, however, possess the financial knowledge to advance their case. Suffice it to say that the Statement of Claim was of sufficient import and content to raise not only a Defence but also an Amended Defence by the Defendant. Most of the requests and or issues raised for further and better particulars can be tested at trial. Both sides now know what the challenges are. Litigants are always bound by their pleadings and any variance therefrom, unless with the leave of the Court, will not be heard or considered.

32. The Court agrees that the timing of the application was most unfortunate. The defendant said it was not "unusual" for the Court to hear and grant such an application at this stage in the proceedings not fully appreciating the implications of the inordinate and inexcusable delay. However, the authorities are clear on the matter of inexcusable delay and there is no doubt that there was inexcusable delay in the matter and then on the brink of a trial date. The Defendant in making this application seemed to be wanting a third chance at getting its Defence right even after the Raeber affidavit says that it had a good Defence to the Statement of Claim. The delay caused thereby has deprived the Plaintiffs of a trial date and to make an order in the Defendant's favour would only further delay the trial. The Court will in no way intervene causing the Plaintiffs further expense and inconvenience.

In all, the Plaintiffs have already been prejudiced by the application and the time it has taken to have the matter finally determined.

33. The Defendant's Summons of 17th April, 2019 is here by dismissed.

34. The file will be returned to the Listing Office for reassignment for the renewal of Case Management Directions.

34. The costs of this application shall be the Plaintiffs to be taxed if not agreed.

1. This is an Affidavit of Service outlining compliance with the conditions of CPR Rule 12.4 as to evidence to be filed proving service of the claim form and statement of claim on the Defendant UBS AG (A SWISS BROKER) (CPR Rule 12.4(a)) and that the Defendant UBS AG (A SWISS BROKER) has not filed an acknowledgement of service (CPR Rule 12.4(b)(i)).
2. I, Irina Tsareva-Starostenko, of the Western District of the New Providence Island, one of the Islands of the Commonwealth of The Bahamas, one of the above Claimants, depose hereto.

Evidence of Service

3. The relevant facts showing the service of the claim form and statement of claim on the Defendant UBS AG (A SWISS BROKER) are, as follows:

- a. On 22 January 2024, the Defendant UBS AG (A SWISS BROKER) was registered under the Companies Act, 1992,¹ as a foreign company. A copy of the UBS AG Certificate of Registration under Section 174(1) of the Companies Act, 1992 dated 22 January 2024, is now produced and shown to me, marked as 'Exhibit 1'.
- b. According to Company Profile from the Registrar General's Department the Defendant UBS AG (A SWISS BROKER) has:
 - i. (a)Registered Agent, CREDIT SUISSE, NASSAU BRANCH-WEALTH MGT., with Agent Number: 1014 and Agent Address: 4th Fl Bahamas Financial Centre, P.O. Box N-4801, Nassau, Bahamas; and
 - ii. (b)Registered Office: 4th Fl Bahamas Financial Centre, P.O. Box N-4301, Nassau, Bahamas.

A copy of the UBS AG Company Profile from the Registrar General's Department is now produced and shown to me, marked as 'Exhibit 2'.

- c. On 28 February 2024, at 12:23 PM, I, accompanied by another Claimant Yuri Starostenko, served on the Defendant UBS AG (A SWISS BROKER) the Standard Claim Form (Amended) in Form G3 issued under CPR Rules 8.1(1)(a) and 8.1(5), dated 19 February 2024 and e-filed 21 February 2024 for the case 2015/CLE/GEN/1451, Junkanoo Estates Ltd et al. v. UBS (BAHAMAS) LTD (IN VOLUNTARY LIQUIDATION) et al., and the Statement of Claim, filed 14 November 2017, "by leaving the same"² at the Defendant UBS AG (A SWISS BROKER)'s Registered Office at 4th Floor, Bahamas Financial Centre, Nassau, Bahamas, namely, inside the receptionist's office and a sitting room of the Defendant UBS AG (A SWISS BROKER)'s Registered Agent, CREDIT SUISSE, NASSAU BRANCH-WEALTH MNG., at 4th Fl Bahamas Financial Centre, Nassau, Bahamas. Copies of one of the two original Certificates of Service compiled by Yuri Starostenko on the spot with attached photographs of the place of service inside Bahamas Financial Centre building at 1st Flour, while signing in, and at 4th Flour, inside the receptionist's office and a sitting room of CREDIT SUISSE, NASSAU BRANCH-WEALTH MNG., while serving, containing images of the documents served, of Yuri Starostenko and of myself, certifying that documents specified in the Certificate of Service have been served on the Defendant UBS AG (A SWISS BROKER) "by leaving the same" "at its registered office" at 4th Fl Bahamas Financial Centre, Nassau, Bahamas are now produced and shown to me, marked collectively as 'Exhibit 3'.

² A method codified by the Statute of The Bahamas in Section 23 of the Companies Act, 1992:

Evidence of Default

- 4. The relevant facts that the Defendant UBS AG (A SWISS BROKER) has not filed an acknowledgement of service are, as follows:
 - a. On 21 March 2024, I attended at the Supreme Court Registry and inspected the Court's file in this action.
 - b. Based upon my observations during the inspection, I found and certify that no acknowledgment of service in Form G9 containing a notice of intention to default in accordance with CPR Part 9 was filed by or on behalf of the Defendant UBS AG (A SWISS BROKER).
 - c. The inspections revealed that, on the date of inspection, the Defendant UBS AG (A SWISS BROKER) has failed to file an acknowledgement of service, and the time period for filing an acknowledgement of service under CPR Rules 9.3 and 8.22(1)(a) has expired on 14 March 2024 and, therefore, the Claimants may enter a default judgment against the Defendant UBS AG (A SWISS BROKER) under CPR Part 12.

The Belief

- 5. I believe that the ends of justice would be served by the entry of a default judgment against the Defendant UBS (BAHAMAS) LTD (IN VOLUNTARY LIQUIDATION), together with imposing interest and fixed costs.

PETITION

To set aside the Statutory Demand (Section 189(1) of the Act)

To the Supreme Court

The humble petition of Junkanoo Estates Ltd., the Company, shows as follows:

1. The Company was incorporated under the IBC Act on 19 December 2007 under the current name, with registration number 151752 and its registered office is c/o Sears & Co., 10 Market Street, Nassau, New Providence, The Bahamas.
2. In January 2008, Yuri Starostenko and Irina Tsareva provided a loan to the Company in the amount of US$2,313,226.13 through their family's Five Stars (Bahamas) Foundation for the purchase of a residential real estate property located in the prestigious community of Lyford Cay known as Jazz House (“Residential Premises”)³ for a consideration of US$2,160,000.00 according to Instrument Data Form submitted for lodging on 5 June 2008 with the Registrar General’s Department for record of the Indenture of Conveyance from Anthony Armstrong Robinson and Christine Maria Robinson (his wife) to Junkanoo Estates Ltd. and expenses of US$153,226.13 according to purchase completion statements by Cheryl E. Bazard Law Chambers dated 11 January 2008 and Sears & Co. dated 25 January 2008. Since then, The Residential Premises was to be intended to be occupied by Yuri Starostenko and Irina Tsareva and their family let under a tenancy granted to them within the meaning of the Conveyancing and Law of Property Act, which provided a term of years for their joint lives and life of the survivor and the exclusive possession, management, and control, which enabled them to exclude strangers, and the fine for that grant was their moneys to be paid for or invested in the Residential Premises, or any other benefit in the nature of a fine.

² See Order 2, rule 2 of the Companies Liquidation Rules, 2012, as to form and content of statutory demand.

³ ALL THAT piece parcel or lot of land situate in the Western District of the said Island of New Providence one of the Islands of the Commonwealth of The Bahamas being Lot Number Five (No.5) in Block Number Seven (No. 7) of the Number One (No.1) Subdivision of Lyford Cay.

3. In July 2012, the Respondent, acting through its officers, its website, its product brochure called "Introducing the UBS Real Estate Collateralized Loan (RECL)" and the Terms and Conditions of UBS (Bahamas) Ltd. ("Terms and Conditions"), offered to the Company:
 - a. a wide range of financial products and services, including investing and online trading with instant execution of trading orders on the U.S. national exchanges, which would be carried out exclusively through electronic trading facilities of UBS AG, a swiss broker, holding 99.999975% of the issued shares in the Respondent; and
 - b. a loan for a term up to five (5) years with full repayment of the outstanding principal and interest due on maturity, where:
 - i. half of the borrowed funds will be used by the Company for the purposes of investing and online trading with instant execution of trading orders on the U.S. national exchanges;
 - ii. the Company will pay interest quarterly, while no payments on the principal will be made during the term of the loan;
 - iii. the Company will grant a real estate mortgage the purpose of which will be strictly subordinated to the Company's investing and online trading with instant execution of trading orders on the U.S. national exchanges.
4. On 18 July 2012, Yuri Starostenko and Irina Tsareva signed on behalf of the Company the Account Application for Entities, which formed a financial services contract between the Respondent, undersigned on 10 August 2012, and the Company, whereby the Company was enabled by the Respondent to take positions in the Derivative products and the U.S. Securities using the loan proceeds.
5. On or about 13 August 2012, the Company opened a corporate account with UBS (Bahamas) Limited numbered 32377 ("account 32377").
6. On 23 August 2012, the Respondent made to the Company a written offer through a Commitment to Finance Letter dated the same day ("Commitment to Finance"), which formed a financial services contract between the Respondent and the Company, whereby the Respondent agreed to provide the Company with:
 - a. a credit facility in the amount of USDS1,400,000.00 ("Facility Amount") at the interest rate of 4.02 per cent per annum ("Credit Facility");
 - b. a trading/investment capital in the amount of USDS700,000.00 pursuant to the "Minimum invested assets under management" and "Purpose" clauses, which read: "The higher of USD$500,000 (net of any Lombard financing) or 50% of the Facility Amount";
 - c. the term of the credit facility for a period of 5 years pursuant to the "Term" clause, which reads: "The Term of the facility shall be 5 years 0 months".

7. On 18 September 2012, as security for repayment of the indebtedness arising under and pursuant to the Credit Facility, the Company granted the Respondent a Mortgage (“Mortgage”) over the Residential Premises the value of which was increasing steadily since 2012 according to the valuations prepared by duly licensed Certified Appraisers, as follows:
 - a. $2,800,000.00 (Appraisal Report dated 20 August 2012);
 - b. $3,355,000.00 (Appraisal Report dated 29 April 2016);
 - c. $3,684,000.00 (Appraisal Report dated 26 December 2016);
 - d. $3,417,939.00 (Opinion of Value dated 25 September 2023); and
 - e. $3,655,375.00 (Opinion of Value dated 7 December 2023).
8. On 28 September 2012, the Respondent provided the Company with a loan on the terms contained in the Commitment to Finance.
9. From 29 September 2012 to 11 June 2013, there was total inactivity on the Company’s account 32377 resulting from the failure to render financial services by the Respondent for these eight (8) months and (15) fifteen days.
10. In August 2013, the Company had made net profit of US$30,694.00, and the Respondent made two (2) compensation payments to the Company in the total amount of US$3,110.00⁴ for loss of profits resulting from the rendering of or the failure to render financial services by the Respondent.
11. On 18 September 2013, the Company demanded compensation for loss of profits in the amount of USD$125,000.00 resulting from the rendering of or the failure to render financial services by the Respondent, and the Respondent failed to compensate the Company.
12. From September 2013 to April 2014, certain officers, agents and attorney of the Respondent had conspired to bring about the collapse of the Company by engineering an alleged “default” of terms of the “Minimum invested assets under management” and “Purpose” clauses of the Commitment to Finance, and in payment of interest, ousting the Company from investing and online trading with instant execution of trading orders on the U.S. national exchanges four (4) years before expiration of the term of the loan, as follows.
 - a. On 19 September 2013, the Respondent without any reasonable ground and in breach of its own Terms and Conditions sent to the Company a “margin call” and a “halt of trading”, whilst the sum of US$589,362.00 was standing to the Company’s credit in the account 32377.
 - b. On 28 February 2014, the Respondent without any reasonable ground declared the loan in “default” and demanded the Company to pay the principal along with interest and “breakage penalty” of US$140,000.00 or to vacate the Residential Premises.
 - c. On 7 March 2014, the Respondent announced in the Nassau Guardian and the Tribune that it is “winding down the banking side of its operations over the next year”.

⁴ The Respondent’s two (2) reports showing two (2) compensation payments to the Company in the total amount of US$3,110.00 sent by the Respondent (i) on 1 August 2013, by email timed at 11:59 AM; and (ii) on 4 September 2013, by email timed at 5:31 PM.

- d. On 11 April 2014, the Respondent without any reasonable ground debited the Company's account 32377 with the sum of US$526,323.49 standing to its credit, whereby usurped the Company's money and business opportunities three (3) years and five (5) months before expiration of the five (5) year loan term.⁵
13. On 3 October 2014, the Respondent without any reasonable ground instituted vexatious legal proceedings in the Supreme Court on a money lending claim against the Company and its guarantors, Yuri Starostenko and Irina Tsareva, in Action No. 01620 of 2014.
14. On 5 November 2014, the Respondent without any reasonable ground continued the instituted vexatious legal proceedings in Action No. 01620 of 2014 by making an application for summary judgment seeking possession of the Residential Premises, in violation of both the provisions of Order 1, rule 6⁶ of then current Rules of the Supreme Court ("RSC") and common law, based on the Company's alleged "default" in payment of interest and a purported set-off between the Company and the Defendant, which was in fact "breakage penalty" of US$140,000.00 initially claimed by the Respondent but then waived.
15. On 19 March 2015, a member of UBS AG, by passing of a resolution for winding up, had commenced voluntary liquidation of the Respondent under section 211 of the Act and appointed voluntary liquidators in accordance with section 214 of the Act, making the Respondent insolvent and unable to fulfil any of its contractual duties and obligations two (2) years and seven (7) months before expiration of the five (5) year loan term.
16. On 23 March 2015, in Action No. 01620 of 2014 a summary judgment order was procured by fraud⁷ upon the court which was misled by the Respondent's attorney as to material circumstances, resulting in the rendition of such a judgment which would not have been given if the whole conduct of the case had been fair, and an unless order was made dated the same day ("Summary Judgment Order") for the debt claimed⁸ or for possession

⁶ RSC Order 1, rule 6 which reads:

"6. Except where the context otherwise requires, references in these Rules to an action or claim for the possession of land shall be construed as including references to proceedings against the Crown for an order declaring that the plaintiff is entitled as against the Crown to the land or to be the possession thereof."

⁷ The Company, together with Yuri Starostenko and Irina Tsareva, made another application to the Supreme Court, filed 21 February 2024, to have the Order of the Supreme Court dated 23 March 2015, set aside on the ground that the Respondent obtained the same by fraud.

⁸ The Summary Judgment Order reads at page 1, paragraph 1:

"1. It is adjudged that the Plaintiff do recover against the Defendants the sum of USD$920, 164.87 for principal money and interest, due and owing as of 5th December, 2014, secured by the Mortgage dated 1st September, 2012 ("the Mortgage") over Lot 5 in Block Number 7 of the Number 1 Subdivision of "Lyford Cay" in the Western District of New Providence . . .". (Ellipsis added)

of the Residential Premises,⁹ while no real attempt was made to present both the Company and guarantors and the points of their defence were never tested.¹⁰

17. Before and during the summary judgement hearing before the Supreme Court on 23 March 2015, a certain officer and attorney of the Respondent agreed to bring about a situation which would or might deceive Evans J. performing public duties by filing a fraudulent affidavit and by making false statements at this hearing.
18. On 31 March 2015, the Company's value of assets in respect of which joint voluntary liquidators were appointed was US$114,816,054.00, including legal fees and other liquidation costs provision US$3,895,986.00, according the Unaudited Non-Consolidated Statements of Financial Position of UBS (Bahamas) Ltd. which was registered with the Registrar General's Department of The Bahamas on 29 April 2015.
19. On 1 April 2015, the voluntary liquidators delivered a letter to the Registrar General confirming that the voluntary liquidation of the Company was commenced on 1 April 2015 and enclosed the following documents in respect of the Company:
 - a. Shareholders' Resolution dated 19 March 2015;
 - b. Notice of Voluntary Winding Up dated 1 April 2015; and
 - c. Voluntary Liquidators' Consent to Act dated 1 April 2015, but
 - d. no prior approval of the Securities Commission of The Bahamas granted before going into voluntary liquidation.
20. On 16 September 2015, the Company, together with Yuri Starostenko and Irina Tsareva, instituted legal proceedings in the Supreme Court against the Respondent in Action No. 01451 of 2015 for breach of duties, false and fraudulent representations, and for that in reality, the Respondent provided no actual service to the Company's investing and online trading with instant execution of trading orders on the U.S. national exchanges, but its investment services were a massive fraudulent scheme.

"3. Unless the Defendants, within 21 days of the date hereof (i.e. on or before 3rd April, 2015) pay to the Plaintiff the sum of USD$920,164.87 due and owing as of 5th December, 2014, together with interest thereon at the rate of USD$129.82 per day from that date until payment, the Defendants must (1) deliver up vacant possession of the Property to the Plaintiff within 28 days hereof (ie. on or before 21st April, 2015). . .". (Ellipsis added)

¹⁰ The Judgment of the Privy Council given on 3 April 2017 in Junkanoo Estate Ltd and others (Appellants) v UBS Bahamas Ltd (In Voluntary Liquidation) (Respondent) (Bahamas) [2017] UKPC 8, Privy Council Appeal No. 0052 of 2016, which reads at paragraph 4, inter alia.

"4. . . "It appears not to have been appreciated that the defence which the defendants wished to raise was not just that the debt was abated by the cross-claim, which might in some circumstances have amounted to an equitable set-off, but that the event of default which was said to have made the debt payable was brought about by UBS's breaches of duty. This may or may not have been a good point, but Counsel's concession meant that that was never decided. Evans J gave judgment for the debt claimed and for possession in default of payment, without prejudice to the defendants' right to pursue their counterclaim." (Some cites omitted, underline added)

21. On 4 November 2015, Action No. 01451 of 2015 was consolidated with the Counterclaim in Action No. 01620 of 2014, and they proceeded as one action under the Supreme Court Order which provided also for the consolidated litigation costs.¹¹
22. On 26 April 2019, Yuri Starostenko on behalf of the Company in his capacity as a director served on the Respondent a statutory demand for payment of US$526,323.49.
23. On 17 May 2019, the Respondent filed a Petition in Action COM/bnk/No. 00039 of 2019 to set aside the Company's statutory demand pursuant to Section 189(2) of the Act on the ground "that a substantial injustice would be caused if the Statutory Demand is not set aside."
24. On 21 May 2019, the Company filed a Cross-Petition (by way of Originating Application pursuant to ORDER 3, Companies Liquidation Rules, 2012) ("Cross-Petition") in Action COM/bnk/No. 00039 of 2019, seeking, inter alia, that the Respondent be wound up by or its liquidation be subject to the supervision of the Court.
25. On 28 June 2024, the Respondent served the Statutory Demand under Section 94 of the IBC Act on the Company at its registered office in New Providence, which called for the Company to pay the sum of $1,493,661.65, which it claims is duly owed to the Respondent.
26. The Statutory Demand specified that if the sum of $1,493,661.65 was not paid by the Company to the Respondent within 21 days of the date upon which the demand was served (or within 19 July 2024), the Company would be deemed to be insolvent and a winding-up petition might be presented against the Company.
27. The Company is of the view that pursuant to Section 189(1) of the Act this Court shall set aside the Statutory Demand being satisfied that —
 - a. There is a substantial dispute between the Company and the Respondent as to the debt is owing or due because a summary judgment order granted to the Respondent on 23 March 2015 in Action No. 01620 of 2014 ("Summary Judgment Order") was an unless order of the this Court granting two forms of relief that cannot be obtained at the same time because the Summary Judgment Order limited the relief granted to one or another form of relief, one form excluding the other, the boundary between which were clearly demarcated, having different practical effects and posing different questions of reviewability, namely:
 - i. the debt claimed;¹² or

"1. Action CLE/gen/No.01451 of 2015 be consolidated with the Counterclaim in Action CLE/gen/No.01620 of 2014 and the said actions do proceed as one action."

"4. The costs of all the parties to the above-mentioned actions including herein their costs of and incidental to this application be costs in the said consolidated action."

ii possession of the Residential Premises;¹³ and, therefore, execution of the process issued on the Summary Judgment Order obtained in the Court in favour of the Respondent in the proceedings instituted by it against the Company, is returned satisfied in whole once the Summary Judgment Order was fulfilled through delivery of possession sought by the Respondent on 27 February 2018, it had lost its coercive effect, and no further proceedings were necessary because the Respondent had obtained all the relief sought that was available to it under the Summary Judgment Order; and, additionally, the Summary Judgment Order was appealed and challenged by the Company on several grounds, inclusive the ground that it had been procured by fraud upon the Court perpetrated by the Respondent,¹⁴ the rendition of which would not have been given if the whole conduct of the case had been fair, relying on the legal principle articulated in the judgment of David Steel, J. in Kuwait Airways v Iraqi Airways [2005] EWHC 2524 (Comm) considered by the Hon. Sir Michael Barnett, P in the Judgment of the Court of Appeal in Murphy v Hot Pancakes et al. - SCCivApp No. 95 of 2020 that “where the original judgment has been unsuccessfully appealed (without knowledge of the alleged fraud) the first instance court in the second action has jurisdiction to set aside both the original first instance judgment and appellate order (s) upholding it.”

- b. The Company has a reasonable prospect of establishing a set-off or counterclaim in an amount greater than the amount specified in the Statutory Demand, in particular, on 14 November 2017, the Company, along with Yuri Starostenko and Irina Tsareva, filed in Consolidated Action No. 01620 of 2014 / No. 01451 of 2015 the Statement of Claim establishing counterclaim (“Statement of Claim”), raising the twelve (12) claims against the Respondent in the total amount of $11,280,107.00 which is more than seven (7) times greater than the amount of $1,493,661.65 specified in the Statutory Demand, to which, as this Court found in the Ruling dated 8 May 2023, the Respondent was “hindered” from “mounting its Defence” against the Statement of Claim and it is bound to that position by its pleadings;¹⁵ and dated 1st September, 2012 (“the Mortgage”) over Lot 5 in Block Number 7 of the Number 1 Subdivision of “Lyford Cay” in the Western District of New Providence (Ellipsis added)

“3. Unless the Defendants, within 21 days of the date hereof (i.e. on or before 3rd April, 2015) pay to the Plaintiff the sum of USD$920,164.87 due and owing as of 5th December, 2014, together with interest thereon at the rate of USD$129.82 per day from that date until payment, the Defendants must (1) deliver up vacant possession of the Property to the Plaintiff within 28 days hereof (ie. on or before 21st April, 2015). . .”. (Ellipsis added)

¹⁴ The Company, together with Yuri Starostenko and Irina Tsareva, made another application to the Supreme Court, filed 21 February 2024, to have the Order of the Supreme Court dated 23 March 2015, set aside on the ground that the Respondent obtained the same by fraud.

¹⁵ See the Supreme Court Ruling dated 8 May 2023, which read paragraphs 13, 31 and 32:

“13. . . . The Defendant continued that the Statement of Claim contains several allegations against the Defendant and which are without particulars thus hindering the Defendant in mounting its Defence.” (Underline added, some cites omitted)

- c. The Respondent holds both the possession of the Residential Premises, as mentioned above, and a security interest in respect of the debt claimed by the Respondent in the form of these Residential Premises, and the value of this security interest of $3,600,000.00 or so is more than two (2) times greater than the amount of $1,493,661.65 specified in the Statutory Demand.

28. Accordingly, the Statutory Demand has been raised by the Respondent without any reasonable ground and is an abuse of the Court's process, and the Company has numerous grounds for setting aside the same under Section 189(1) of the Act as stated above.

YOUR PETITIONER therefore humbly prays:

- i. That the Statutory Demand dated 28 June 2024 issued by the Respondent to the Company be wholly set aside;
- ii. The Respondent be restrained from proceeding to file a winding-up petition on the basis of the Statutory Demand;
- iii. This Action be consolidated with the Cross-Petition in Action COM/bnk/No. 00039 of 2019, and these Actions be proceeded as one action;
- iv. Costs; and,
- v. For such further Orders or directions as the Court thinks fit.

Dated: the 18th of July 2024.

Yuri Starostenko
in his capacity as a director of the Company
