

1. Identify the main components of the system.

2. Describe the flow of information and materials between these components.

3. Explain the role of each component in the overall system.

4. Discuss the potential challenges or limitations of the system.